

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

4 April 1974

Dear Colonel Shin,

Many thanks for your kind letter. It was good of you to write and I appreciate it very much. I well remember our friendship and service together as Attaches of our respective countries in Paris.

For the past two years I have been Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and find my job most interesting and rewarding. I hope that in the not distant future my travels will bring me to your country and that we can get together then. I still hear from Colonel Kashiwagi who is now in Sendai.

With every good wish to you and your family.

Faithfully,

Colonel Sang-kil Shin
Army Security Command
Seoul, Korea
